ATHLETIC CLUB OF PHILADELPHIA WILL AGAIN FOSTER ATHLETICS

GEORGETOWN BOWS IN FIRST DEFEAT

BENNING RACE MEET PROMISES RARE SPORT

Cross-Country Championship Race of Atlantic Division, A. A. U., to Be Given on November 22

Thought That This Contest Will Revive Former Interest and Attract Desirable Clubs Into Union.

Followers of athletics will be glad to learn that the Athletic Club of Philadelphia will again foster athletics throughout the Atlantic Association. Several members of the club are enthusiasts over track and field sports and they have determined to try and make things bustle a little more in this association. Their first move in this direction will take the form of a cross-country race. On November 22, under the auspices of the Athletic Club of Philadelphia, the cross-country championship of the Atlantic division of the A. A. U. will be given. The race will be run in Fairmount Park over the national course.

It will be open to all clubs and associations in the division, which includes New Jersey, south of Trenton and including Trenton; Pennsylvania, and Delaware, and this district. In previous division championships races have been open only to clubs belonging to the association. The giving of this race, it is hoped, will be a means of bringing other clubs into the association. The only conditions are that contestants must be registered in the A. A. U. and have lived in this district for at least six months and are bona-fide amateurs. Local amateur sportsmen remember with a great deal of pleasure the athletic events held under the old Athletic Association of the Schuylkill Navy at Philadelphia, and have hopes now of a revival of track and field contests in which they may compete with the same pleasant auspices as in former years.

Athletics at Y. M. C. A.

Volley ball is almost as popular in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium as basketball, and the rivalry is strong between them, and about November they will begin a series of games for the championship of the "gym."

The Journalists and Department Clerks' team are putting up a strong game, and are prepared to meet other local teams in friendly competition.

The teams are made up as follows:

Evening class—Decker, I. F.; Golden, I. F.; Ludwig, C. F.; Werres, I. B.; Graves, R. B.; Judge, C. B.
Morning—Adt, I. F.; Connors, R. F.; Speare, C. F.; Lederer, C. F.; Herman, I. B.; Lockwood, R. B.; Speare, C. B.
Department—Barber, I. F.; Burket, R. F.; Haynie, C. F.; Ford, I. B.; Streamer, R. B.; McDonald, C. B.
Afternoon—Deering, I. F.; Cressup, R. F.; Briscoe, C. F.; Hoffman, I. B.; Hubbard, R. B.; Dimmick, C. B.
Morning class—Crawford, I. F.; Nichols, C. F.; Mirick, C. F.; Frick, I. B.; Ridenour, R. B.; Jenks, C. B.

Fast Football Team.

The football team is giving a good account of itself. It is not winning as many games as its management, but it is keeping the scores down, and with more practice and some coaching for trick plays the "eleven" will win games. It is made up of light players, who make up in cleverness and quickness what they lack in weight.

The team held the Olympics, the champions of the District, down to a 12-to-0 game last week, and made a good all-around showing on the line, as well as back of it. James and Bielaski at right half, Sutton at left half and Kirkman at quarter excelled in general work.

The rest of the team is made up of Burrows, I. C.; Burke, I. T.; Hoffman, I. G.; Scott, center; Graham, R. G.; Orme, I. F.; McIntyre, R. C.; Catelings, full back.

Manager Crawford is desirous of arranging other games, and would like to hear from local managers. He may be addressed at the association building.

Mr. Beckett is giving his basketball and indoor baseball teams lots of practice, and his players will open the championship season in prime condition, prepared to win honors in both leagues.

Carroll Institute Gymnasium.

Notwithstanding the several withdrawals from Carroll Institute's old bowling team, the organization will put a "five" into the District League, which will in all likelihood hold its own during the season.

It has two of the old team in Rice and Gorman, and these will serve to steady the newcomers. Other members of the team are: Stitt, who bowled last season with the Golden Eagle team; Spies, formerly of the Saengerbund "five," and one of its cranks, and Cox, who was captain last year, and bowled occasionally. Howard and Merritt will be the extra men.

Captain Cox has been bowling the candidates in a test series of fifteen games for averages, and the above selection is a result of the work.

Two games that were noteworthy in the series were 93 and 92, and these without Rice, and if the veteran had been in, the 1,000 mark might have been touched.

In the contest for the Cox-Bowman prize for best average in the test series, Charles H. Spies bowled an average of 170-2-3, and won the gold fob and a jacket, donated by the above generous promoters of the interest in bowling. Cox did not compete in the contest for obvious reasons. The prize was presented at last Thursday's smoker.

For the Wrestling Tourney.

The wrestlers of the Institute are open for challenges in all weights from 115 to 185 pounds, and as soon as all the classes have been arranged for, Prof. Joyce will prepare a schedule for the tourney, and the contests for a gold medal in each class will begin.

It is a good sport, and there is plenty of talent here that needs developing, and this is its chance. Prof. Joyce de-age the sport among amateurs. He has a splendid mat, which is at the disposal of wrestlers at all times. So well matched were the Institute and Y. M. C. A. basketball teams in the exhibition game last Saturday that neither scored a field goal. Murphy and Boxwell played backs; Thompson and Kerr, forwards, and Cullen, center. The above is not the Boxwell who wrestled with Parker, O'Dwyer and Costello, of the Reserves, are playing the fine points of the game, and are good enough to go into the first team whenever needed. Howell Cramer, Crogan, and Hughes are members of the third team.

Marion Boxwell does 5 feet in the high jump, and with pushing can do still better. Dawson is now an active member, and will take on any man in the District at 125 pounds, catch-as-catch-can.

Emerson Institute Athletics.

The football team representing Emerson Institute is not as strong as that of last year. It lacks weight and experience; the players are mostly new to the game, but are a promising lot. Under the instructive coaching of Messrs. Sennner and Campbell they are rapidly developing into a speedy team, and what they lack in weight is made up by team work and snappy playing.

Captain Diamond at left half is quick on the defensive and a sure tackler in offensive play. Orme, the other half, is equally speedy, and a close follower of his interference. Bruce Magruder is a dangerous man to buck against and a sure ground gainer. With Skagweigh at quarter to complete the quartet, Emerson has a set of backs that will make her opponents work hard to keep up.

The other men of the team who are doing splendid work are: Godey and Keene, who are doing good tackle work; Burke and Howell, speedy and plucky ends; Herman and Lee and McCallum and Connor at either tackle are developing rapidly in tackle work. McLean and Pritchard, guards, are a stone wall on defensive, but quick to make an opening against their opponents. W. Magruder is doing well snapping back the ball.

Through this team Emerson expects to win the McLean cup. While the team will devote much attention to working for the above trophy, it will not confine its effort to the inter-school series, but will meet other local teams as well.

Track and Field Men.

The prospects for a good track and field team were never better. Diamond will be the sprint man in the 100 and 220. Keene, Burke, Shoemaker and Orme are good men at 220 yards.

Through this team Emerson expects to win the McLean cup. While the team will devote much attention to working for the above trophy, it will not confine its effort to the inter-school series, but will meet other local teams as well.

Magruder is a clever hurdler. Ruhlén is out for the 440 yards, and with the above 220-yard men, will certainly win points for Emerson. Ruhlén and Connor will set the pace in the 880.

McLean and Magruder will look after the weights. The latter will do the high jump and McCaully, who did seventeen feet five and one-half inches in the broad jump, winning at the inter-school meet at Georgetown, should do at least fifteen feet flat this year.

The relay team will probably be: Diamond, captain; Magruder, Burke, Keene and Orme.

Emerson has some clever tennis players, among whom Leland Morris ranks the highest. George Brown claims the honors in ping-pong.

Corcoran Cadet Corps.

The Corcoran Cadet Corps basketball team is taking regular practice and hopes to be in winning form when the regular season opens.

The teams line-up as follows:

Blues—Boyle, captain; Nash, Barabolt, Dragger, Sheemaker, Dowling, White, Hollings, W. Handlohe, E. Handlohe, Lewis, Hale, and Levanan.

The baseball team will be as follows: E. Handlohe, captain; Boyle, Bouvet, Dragger, Lewis, Paoanan, Walters, Iglehart, Tucker, Burroughs, and Barnholt.

The appearance of its team, and its example should be followed by some of the other league members.

Today, clean appearance on the floor, makes a game doubly pleasing to the spectators.

The basketball uniform consists of blue shirt, C. C. C. monogram, with wings, white trunks, blue stripe, blue and white sweaters, and black shoes.

For baseball—Gray shirts and knickerbockers; "Corcoran" across shirt front, blue stockings, black shoes, blue and white jerseys.

Out-of-Town Games Scheduled.

The basketball team will be kept busy, for in addition to the regular league series, it will play with out of town teams as follows: On November 21, a game here with the Cumberland (Md.) Y. M. C. A.; a return game there after January 1; two games in Baltimore, one with West Branch Y. M. C. A. and the other with the Baltimore "Big Five," formerly a Y. M. C. A. team. These two games will be played in November and February, with return games in January and February.

Yale, Lafayette, "Pennsylvania," Princeton, and Cornell have written for and it is the matter of guarantee can be arranged, all will be accommodated. These teams are all strong members of the A. A. U.

While opening a box, J. C. Mount, of Three Mile Run, N. Y., ran a ten-penny nail through the fleshy part of his hand. To my surprise, it removed all pain and soreness and the injured parts were soon healed." For sale by Henry Evans, 922 P Street northwest, wholesale and retail, and all drug stores.

Blue and Gray Lowered Before Lafayette Yesterday by Score of 23 to 0.

Within an incarnate arena of hundreds of friends and fellow students, shouting encouragement and cheering to the capacity of their lusty lungs, urging them to break the fearful odds against which they were contending, Georgetown's football heroes and defenders of the proud Blue and Gray, went down in defeat before the herculean horde of college men from Easton, Pa. The visitors simply swept the field of carnage with the gallant little band, leaving it a crippled and maimed mass of bruises. The score was 23 to 0.

From the very beginning Georgetown had its work cut out. It was up against a combination of weight and team work, the like of which has not been witnessed on the local gridiron this season. Out-pointed in nearly every department of play and pounds lighter in every position, the showing of the Blue and Gray was remarkable. And that the score was not greater is the wonder of the 2,500 or more enthusiasts who occupied seats on the side lines.

So far as the spectators was concerned, the day was an ideal one, but for the men in the two massing lines it was torture. The sun scorched the backs and heads of the men, and early showed its enfeebling effects. This, coupled with the fierceness of play, resulted in constant changing of the men, until, at the close of the contest, Georgetown had used sixteen men, while Lafayette had sent fifteen into play.

Only Five First Downs.

How well Lafayette played on the defense may be imagined from the fact that Georgetown secured first downs only five times. Captain Trout, Morrison, Hall, and Launt were the ground-gainers for the visitors. For Georgetown Buckley and Hart excelled in defensive work, while the tackling of Givens and Kerns was phenomenal. Captain Reilly, owing to his bad wrist, quit the game at the beginning of the second half.

Georgetown's left line was its weakest spot, and it was through tackle and end that the heavy gains by Lafayette were made.

The local team suffered at the hands of the umpire. Lafayette, throughout, indulged in rough play, kicking, holding, and indulging in questionable tactics. Umpire White failed to see Lafayette's repeated holding. Once, when Buckley had his man nailed for a loss on a play around the left end of Georgetown's line, he was deliberately held by a Lafayette man, right under the eyes of this official. The tricky work of Frear at center in bluffing, to snap the ball and then hold it while the Blue and Gray men dashed into the opposing line, cost Georgetown twenty yards for four off-side plays.

Captain Trout won the toss and chose the north goal. Georgetown defended the south goal. Launt kicked off for his team to the Georgetown 15-yard line. Buckley caught it and ran back ten yards before he was downed. Reilly went through the line for two yards, and after Carroll had been thrown back for a yard he punned for twenty-five yards. Duane received the punt and wobbled his way back ten yards. R. Ke pulled him down. On the first down Morrison went around the local left end for twenty yards.

Lafayette's advances continued, however, and Richter was shoved over for the third touchdown, Trout kicking goal. Score, Lafayette, 13; Georgetown, 0.

Seitz made a mess of the kick-off, dribbling it to Thomas, who gathered it up and made fifteen yards on the return. Armstrong broke through on the first scrimmage, and threw Morrison back for a loss. Kerns was injured in this play, and was replaced by Thompson. Advances were made much the same as in the second scoring, resulting in the showing of Trout across the line for the fourth and last touchdowns. He missed the kick for goal.

At this time it was impossible to play accurate ball because of darkness, and a counsel of the coaches and captains resulted in calling the game, the score being Lafayette, 23; Georgetown, 0.

The New Yorks won the first game last night on the Golden Eagles' alleys from the Bostons (by over 100 pins, lost the second by 8, and took the third by 20 pins. OBERLIN FELL AN EASY VICTIM TO CORNELL

Tired After Long Journey, the Congregationalists Put Up Little Defense.

ITHACA, N. Y., Oct. 25.—Cornell had an easy time of it today with Oberlin College, scoring 57 points to the opponent's nothing. The Congregationalists had a heavy team and for the first ten minutes played good football, but they soon collapsed and Cornell had them on the run.

In the first half Cornell scored five touchdowns, a goal from place and a drop goal. Interest in the contest was kept up because of many sensational runs. Coffin ran the distance of the field for one touchdown, getting the ball from the kick off.

Before the first half was over Coach Reed was substituting players, and in the course of the second half the entire eleven had been changed. The scrubs could not do as well as the regulars, and only three times was the Oberlin goal crossed. Oberlin was especially weak today because the men were tired out after their long trip, and last night they had not been able to secure much sleep.

ty-two yards before Reilly overhauled him. Between Hall, Morrison and Trout the ball was rapidly advanced to Georgetown's 3-yard line, where it was held for the first down. On the second, Trout fumbled. Ernst next tried and fell on the ball for the first touchdown, Trout kicking the goal. Score: Lafayette, 6; Georgetown, 0.

Second Goal Made.

The second touchdown was made at the end of fourteen minutes' play, Trout being shoved over the line and also kicking goal. After this there was much hard play, with many pretty tackles. Gains were limited and the thirty-minute half ended without further scoring.

After a ten-minute rest the teams returned to the field without a change. Just before play began Captain Reilly fainted, and was carried off the field and taken to the hospital, where it was found that he had a broken wrist. Deylin was sent in to take his place. Carroll kicked off to the 15-yard line, and fast and furious play followed. Georgetown was penalized. Some slugging was done and two or three changes in the formation were made necessary by injuries.

BERNSTEIN STAYS LIMIT.

For the second time this week "Joe" Bernstein, of Baltimore, last night stayed the limit of fifteen minutes in a catch-as-catch-can wrestling bout with "Young Muldoon" at Kernan's. The bout was even more fiercely contested than the one earlier in the week. Both men took the aggressive as opportunity afforded, and both secured half-nelsons, hammerlocks, and body and leg holds, and each was clever enough to squirm out of danger, and his efforts failed of result. Bernstein proved a tough proposition for Muldoon, who slammed him around the mat and lost no chance at attack. Once or twice Muldoon tried for a fall, and came near turning the trick, but Bernstein was too clever, and by a good bridge saved himself. "Pat" Reedy officiated as referee in satisfactory manner.

It will be seen that there are still eligible some of the best of the season's two-year-olds. With such good ones as Sergeant, Whorler, Lord of the Vale, Shorthose, Mexican, Charles Elwood, and Tantalus Cup to meet, there High Class Thoroughbreds to Run in Stakes—Rich Event for Youngsters.

Washington lovers of the thoroughbred ought to be no complaint as to the quality of horses, and the contest ought to be the best racing ever held in this vicinity when the fall meeting of the Washington Jockey Club takes place next month. Not since the good old days of Ivy City, when the giants of the turf measured strides for the rich stakes hung up there have as many valuable stake races been on the program of a local meeting as are down for decision at Benning this fall.

The efforts of the local organization to give to the Washington people first-class racing ought to meet with liberal patronage, and there is no doubt that a big attendance will be the order every day of the meeting.

There is not a more complete or prettier race course south of New York than the Benning race track of today. Under the direction of President Howland the new Benning course has assumed a metropolitan appearance. The appointments are all first-class in every way, and the new track makes it complete in every respect. There is little doubt that many records will be smashed at the coming meeting, for not only is the track much faster, but the class of horses contending for the purses will be higher than ever before.

Prominent Stables Coming.

Many of the prominent stables of the East and West will bring their thoroughbreds here to wind up the season, and the local public will be given the opportunity of witnessing the struggles of some of the best horses of the season. The principal events to be run at the meeting are the Grand Consolation Stakes, for two-year-olds, at seven furlongs; the Dixie, for three-year-olds, at a mile and three-quarters; the Vestal, for three-year-old fillies, at a mile and a half; the Washington Cup Race, at two miles and a quarter; and the Maximum Stakes, at three miles. The first three are all new stakes, to be run for the first time at the coming meeting.

The Grand Consolation Stakes is just what its name implies—a consolation race for non-winning two-year-olds of the year—youngsters that have not won a race of the value of $5,000. The conditions of the race will make it of the value of nearly $8,000, which is worth the efforts of any trainer to try for. Naturally enough, the value of the stake attracted the best horses of the year. It closed with eighty-six nominations. Among the lot were such cracks as Mizzen, Eugenia Burch, Grey Friar, Teddy Mack, Lord of the Vale, Shorthose, Charles Elwood, Sir Voorhies, Ada Noy, Sergeant, Castilian, Mexican, Whorler, and Aetel. Some of these, such as Eugenia Burch, Grey Friar, Aetel, and Mizzen, have become ineligible, owing to their having won $5,000, but a number of cracks are still in line.

Eligible for Consolation.

The list of those remaining is as follows: A. L. Aste's Earl of Warwick and Typhonic, August Belmont's Oarsman, Saltmaker, Forward, and Lord of the Vale, W. C. Daly's Colonsay, Jere Dunn's Sunny Shore, A. Dangerfield's Cornucopia, J. Frisbie's Mexicana, Goughacres Stable's Shorthose, J. B. Haggin's Charles Elwood, Sir Voorhies, and Ada Noy, H. P. Headley's Ornature, F. R. Hitchcock's Sergeant, Castilian, and Wannakee, William Jennings' Pinnaclet, J. Grant Lyman's Tantalus Cup, J. J. Mackessey's Her Letter, J. E. Madden's Dauphine, Andrew Miller's Sumida, A. E. Reynolds' Never Smile and The Skater, O. L. Richards' Tugal Bay, W. J. Roche's Minnie I. O., S. J. Smith's Class Leader, F. P. Van Meter's Jerry, R. T. Wilson's Mexican and Grandstale, and Whitney & Duryea's Whorler.

It will be seen that there are still eligible some of the best of the season's two-year-olds. With such good ones as Sergeant, Whorler, Lord of the Vale, Shorthose, Mexican, Charles Elwood, and Tantalus Cup to meet, there ought to be no complaint as to the quality of horses, and the contest ought to be the best racing ever held in this vicinity when the fall meeting of the Washington Jockey Club takes place next month.

In the Dixie Stakes are Numeral, Trump, Sunshower, Lord Falconer, Blanche Hermann, Remorse, Grandpa, Flintlock, Adelaide Prince, Rightaway, and Potheen, while the Vestal has Torchlight, Masadora, Merriment, Pilowdex, Batyah, Sunshower, Moon Daisy, Blanche Hermann, Cathness, Sparklet, Lady Fan, Adelaide Prince, Aetholia, Daisy W., and Nightingale.

Already at the Track.

Already a number of horses have arrived at Benning, and tomorrow more are expected from Morris Park. A great many owners will ship their horses directly from Morris Park and give them a rest of two weeks before beginning the final struggle of the season. Among these will be the stable of August Belmont, in which are the three-year-old Masterman, Lord of the Vale, and nine other two-year-olds.

Those that have already arrived at Benning are the following: R. Neville, with Lady Ursula, 4; Tentore, 5, and a two-year-old by Rigoletta-Thistle. The Columbia Stable from Morris Park, in charge of Trainer E. H. Hanna, with Miss Hastings, 3; Red Damsel, 2; Rosair, 3; Willard, Jr., 4; Gloriosa, 2; Toscan, 2; Stolen Kisses, 2; Miss Trussell, 2; Cantelope, 2, and Woodshade, 2.
